WHAT TO EXPECT

Molten Volleyball Camp are designed to teach players the fundamentals of power volleyball. They are a great way for your team to bond and compete before the fall season begins, and for individuals to work on skills needed in that first try-out period of your high school season.

Molten Volleyball Camps will consist of individual skill instruction, training and practice drills as well as competition. The camp's goal is to meet the needs of each individual camper. Campers will be grouped based on skill level and/or age. The staff will not only focus on the fundamental skills of volleyball, they will also meet with your coach and present innovative ways to better the program as a whole.

Molten Volleyball Camps is a training and teaching camp for the athlete and coach. Each day will consist of skill instruction, drills and competition. Players will receive a t-shirt with their enrollment and daily incentives can be earned. The number of athletes will be limited, so early registration is recommended. Players of all levels are welcome. All campers are insured (Molten Volleyball Camps is a secondary provider).

TJ RANTALA

The Sun Prairie Youth Camp will be run by 10 year head coach TJ Rantala and her staff. Rantala has guided the Sun Prairie Cardinals to 4 conference championships and 3 State tournament berths.

Our other Lead Coaches:

ERIKA CANDLER: Candler was the Head Coach at Iowa Wesleyan College from 2006-2009. Candler and her family returned to Wisconsin in 2009. She is a former Division I college setter. Her college career was played at Troy University and Purdue-Fort Wayne. This is Candler's eighteenth summer with Molten Volleyball Camps.

ADRIENNE DELPH: Delph is a former Bowling Green State University player. She has coached both Boys and Girls High School volleyball before moving to the collegiate level. She has coached for Heidelberg College, Owens CC, Troy University, Campbell University, and Ohio State University.

OTHER COACHES: Molten Volleyball Camps also employs different High School and Club Coaches from around the state as well as returning alumni home from college for the summer.

WAYNE KING: King is the co-founder of Molten Volleyball Camps. As an owner and director of Club Fusion and Wisconsin PoWer, King has prided himself in bringing top level training to athletes all over Illinois and Wisconsin. Molten Camps are simply an extension of that vision. King has been named Coach of the Year by the NJCAA and the AVCA. In 2006, he was honored by USAV as an Outstanding Clinician. He has coached three teams to a National Championship, including Kishwaukee College and his Club Fusion teams. King has coached hundreds of DI and DII college athletes.

RUTH LEITZKE: Leitzke is the co-founder of Molten Camps and a member of the Wisconsin Volleyball Hall of Fame. Having previously traveled the state doing summer camps for coaching friends, Leitzke gladly partnered with King to bring the same opportunity to more schools. Leitzke has a varied and successful coaching career. In her 13 years as Hustisford High School head coach, her teams won 9 conference championships, 4 sectional titles, 2 state runner-up titles and 1 state championship. As club director, she is credited with building Wisconsin PoWer to its present state of five sites and over 50 teams. She is best known for her dedication to athletes and teaching them the sport she loves.
